Journal of Indigenous HIV Research (JIHR):
Title Page Template for article submission

Title Should be Listed in Italics and Bold, Left Justified, 16-Point Font

Author's(') names in order of contribution with affiliations* noted in italics, left justified, 12 point font

(*Affiliation description includes title/position, and institution/organization.)

Abstract. Italicized and in 10-point font. Indent entire section 1 inch from left margin. This should include a concise summary of the full written submission. No more than 250 words. Generally, the abstract includes some background information, purpose of the paper or the questions/issues you are discussing, methodology, key points about what you learned or major findings, and a concluding statement regarding the issue.

1
2
3 lines of spacing between Abstract and detailed information for the authors

If an article is written by several people, please underline the name of the lead/corresponding author. Please include all participating authors' with:
- full name;
- academic/professional title(s);
- academic degree(s);
- professional credentials;
- organizational/academic/community affiliation;
- e-mail address;
- telephone and fax numbers; and
- short biography.